Meredith opens the meeting with the Serenity Prayer.

The floor is opened for new business. Allison suggests hosting another virtual Alcathon. A committee was formed and will handle the logistics.

Elections results are reviewed. All newly elected servants begin their terms in January.

A new safe is no longer needed after Erin B. successfully followed troubleshooting instructions – the first step of which was to change the batteries.

The Treasurer's Report includes positive feedback regarding Unity A.A.'s financial situation.

Meredith's memory was jogged; and she reminds the treasurer, secretary, and newly elected Business Meeting Overseer, His Highness, Eric, that making an appointment with the bank was the easiest way to transition account owners.

The Grapevine and Accessibility Representative is going to pass the torch to Jenna on Friday.

H&I meetings are still happening.

Central Office Rep. shares that there has not yet been a meeting since Unity A.A.'s last business meeting.

The GSR shares various information about other groups around the area... Group 1 is still making use of a coffee service; there are a few other groups planning on doing virtual holiday events...

Emmet, Alt. GSR, has nothing to add.

Meeting Leader Leader, Sara P., shares meeting updates. There is a virtual platform called "Shindig" that could be useful... a second Zoom meeting could also be utilized. Stay tuned to the website (<https://unityaakc.org>) for more to come.

Literature Representative, E., is willing to help people acquire A.A. literature from A.A. Please see her for more information. Casey, Central Office Rep., shares that literature can be acquired from CO directly as individuals. Jason Fowler shared the link, <https://onlineliterature.aa.org/>, which would probably be the easiest option...

In-person meetings are happening... the meetings are “safe.” Those attending would like more people to return.

Nathan suggested making an extra contribution to the entities this month in light of Unity A.A.’s improved financial situation (as compared to the months comprising the start of the pandemic). A motion is made to give a doubled contribution of $400. The contributions are broken down as follows:

$ (100.00)	50%	- KC CENTRAL OFFICE
$ (60.00)	30%	- AA WORLD SERVICES
$ (20.00)	10%	- DISTRICT 6
$ (20.00)	10%	- WESTERN AREA
<hr/>
$ (200.00)		TOTAL CONTRIBUTIONS

The motion passes.

Merry Christmas!
